CROSSROADS COLLEGE PREP SENIOR ONLY STUDENT ATHLETE IN MISSOURI TO RECEIVE PARADE MAGAZINE NOMINATION

St. Louis, MO, April 8, 2010 - Crossroads College Prep Senior Meghan McKenna has received many honors after completing her final basketball season with The Current. McKenna was mentioned as a Notable Nominee, the only student athlete from Missouri to receive a nomination, in Parade Magazine's Girls' Basketball issue. McKenna was also named SCAA Player of the Year as well as All-District.

The Parade Magazine article discusses McKenna's impressive average game stats which include "16 points, 4.5 rebounds, 4.1 assists, and 2.6 steals a game." The piece goes on to share that "in February she was named a St. Louis Athlete of the Week for helping her team win three consecutive games, with 19 points against Bayless and Dupo and 24 points versus Maplewood."

"She was also selected the Player of the Conference this year," Crossroads College Prep Girls' Basketball Coach Bob Beatrice says. "Meghan is a good student and the go-to player on our team that makes things happen. She is a tenacious defender, always diving for balls, and deadly on three-pointers."

Off the court, McKenna makes just as big an impression. "Meghan is the life of the locker room as the pre-game DJ with her music blaring," Beatrice says.

Crossroads College Preparatory School offers an academically challenging curriculum to a diverse and inclusive community of students in grades seven through twelve.

Crossroads College Prep encourages its students to engage their imaginations in every endeavor, ranging from the sciences to the fine arts, and strives to develop respectful citizens, who apply scholarship, imagination, and critical thinking to civic and social responsibility in their communities and beyond.
