A CULTURAL CELEBRATION AT CROSSROADS COLLEGE PREP

St. Louis, MO, February 5, 2010 - The Crossroads College Preparatory School Multicultural and Black History Celebration, "Sign of the Time," with a special tribute performance to the culture of Haiti, will take place on February 18, 2010 at 7:00 p.m. at Crossroads College Preparatory School.

Diversity is one of the key components of the Crossroads College Prep mission statement, and the school is proud to host this event each year. The multicultural component of this celebration represents music, poetry, art, and dance from various cultures of the world. This event also gives the school community an opportunity to support Black History Month by recognizing the achievements of African Americans from yesterday, today, and tomorrow.

There will be special guest performances by Theresa Payne, Kenny DeShields, Floyd Boykin III, C Jay Conrod, Mario Pascal, Duane "Jingo" Williams and Donald Williams, Mia Watkins, and The Crossroads College Preparatory School Music and Foreign Language Departments.

This event, sponsored by the Crossroads College Prep Music and Foreign Language Departments and emceed by Kenny DeShields, is open to the public.

Crossroads College Preparatory School offers an academically challenging curriculum to a diverse and inclusive community of students in grades seven through twelve.

Crossroads College Prep encourages its students to engage their imaginations in every endeavor, ranging from the sciences to the fine arts, and strives to develop respectful citizens, who apply scholarship, imagination, and critical thinking to civic and social responsibility in their communities and beyond.
